

Lecture of Mag. Markus Stadlmann, M.B.A. (Chicago) on

“INVESTING IN THE FUTURE YOU WANT!”

Within the seminar „Socially Responsible Investments“ at 21st November 2016, 15.00-16.30 , OMP 1, Hörsaal 16

The Speaker:

Markus Stadlmann is Chief Investment Officer of Lloyds Banking Group. His key accountabilities include investment leadership, governance and communications.

In his previous roles, Markus held management positions at Erste Group in Vienna and Barclays plc in London. At Barclays, Markus led the portfolio management and specialist investment teams as well as catering to the wealth management needs of 28 thousand affluent and high net worth customers. Prior to joining Barclays, he was Managing Director of Harald Quandt Holding and Chief Investment Officer of HQ Trust, which to this day is the largest family office in Europe. He spent eight years at Siemens AG, initially as junior treasurer. Markus eventually became CIO of the pension fund and a member of the leadership team of Siemens Financial Services.

He received an M.B.A. from the University of Chicago Graduate School of Business (later re-named Chicago Booth).

Markus Stadlmann, his wife Christine and their four children have recently moved to a listed building. He is likely to be found with his nose in a book and enjoys passionate skiing.